Bread is a staple food prepared from a dough of flour and water, usually by baking. Throughout recorded history it has been popular around the world and is one of the oldest artificial foods, having been of great importance since the dawn of agriculture.. Proportions of types of flour and other ingredients vary widely, as do modes of preparation.

Bush bread, or seedcakes, refers to the bread made by Australian Aboriginals for many thousands of years, by crushing seeds into a dough, after which it is baked. The bread was high in protein and carbohydrate, and helped form part of a balanced traditional diet.. With the arrival of Europeans and pre-milled white flour, this bread-making process all but disappeared (although women were still ...
